Having kept his gender identity a secret since childhood, retired college professor and transgender woman Mort Pfefferman (Jeffrey Tambor, The Hangover) has finally decided to live openly as Maura. The Pfeffermans have few boundaries when it comes to each other's lives, so when Maura tries telling her three grown children the news, she runs into the roadblock of their collective self-obsession. Eldest daughter Sarah's (Amy Landecker, A Serious Man) failing marriage is challenged by the reemergence of a college girlfriend; youngest child Ali (Gaby Hoffman, Uncle Buck) is continuing her struggle to get off the family dole; and son Josh (Jay Duplass, Cyprus) has come face-to-face with the consequences of a lifetime of multiple sexual partners. As the kids' larger-than-life mom Shelly (Judith Light, Who's The Boss) struggles to care for her ailing second husband, the details of Maura's past collide with her hopes and dreams for the future.

Real Estate Wars (8x60min)

Fall 2017

Canadian Broadcast Premiere

It's the ultimate turf battle in the O.C., and things get tense when realty and reality collide. John McMonigle was formerly the number one real estate agent in the country, but lost everything when the real estate market crashed, ultimately forcing him into bankruptcy. John, never a man to stay down, rebuilt his empire with five ambitious agents to create The McMonigle Team, with one of their primary goals being to beat The Relegance Group. Relegance is made up of five zealous agents, including the "real estate queen" of Orange County, Jojo Romeo, who happens to have a contentious past with John. As an estranged employee of John's, she became determined to join Relegance and help them become the number one team in the O.C. However, it's a small world, and when they vie for the same high-end clients, limited listings and large commissions, the competition can be ruthless. With 10 agents, eccentric clients, multi-million dollar deals, old vendettas, and one common goal of winning, all is fair in real estate and war.

Mozart in the Jungle, Season 4 (10x60min)

2017/2018

Canadian Broadcast Premiere

Mozart in the Jungle is a half-hour comedic drama that draws back the curtain at the New York Symphony, where artistic dedication and creativity collide with mind games, politicking and survival instincts. Based on the critically acclaimed memoir by Blair Tindall, the series is seen through the eyes of a young oboist, Hailey (Lola Kirke, Reaching for the Moon), who tries to navigate through the egos and eccentricities of a world renowned orchestra, and new conductor Rodrigo (Gael García Bernal, The Motorcycle Diaries), an enfant terrible whose passion for purity threatens the plans of the orchestra old guard. That old guard is represented by Thomas (Malcolm McDowell, A Clockwork Orange), the reluctantly outgoing conductor, and Gloria (Bernadette Peters, Pennies from Heaven), the chairwoman of the board, who wonder what they have wrought by bringing Rodrigo into the fold. The musicians themselves, a colourful family of disparate personalities, are struggling to deal with this new regime. Along with her friends Alex (Monica Bellucci), a dancer on the brink of success, Cynthia (Saffron Burrows, The Bank Job), a worldly cellist, and Lizzie (Hannah Dunne), a world class partier, Hailey searches for what it means to dedicate your life to music.
