TORONTO, March 29, 2019 – Shocking. Positively shocking. The destructive double eviction wreaked havoc on the Big Brother Canada house leaving the agents absolutely stunned. The first eviction of the night saw Chelsea Bird from Edmonton, Alberta lose her secret clearance to BBCAN HQ in a unanimous vote. After Chelsea's departure, Arisa delivered the devastating double eviction blow to the remaining agents immediately turning them all into possible marks. And it was Eddie Lin from Montréal, Québec who ultimately lost the battle, becoming the second casualty of the night in a highly emotional eviction.

Earlier this week, Head of Household Dane Rupert took a shot at radio host Chelsea Bird and bartender Kyra Shenker, nominating the close friends for eviction. After a dramatic POV challenge, neither of them were able to pull themselves off the block, leaving their fate in the hands of winner, agent Cory Kennedy. With Cory choosing not to use the POV, Chelsea mistakenly called out some of her closest allies in an effort to save herself, which called into question where her loyalties lie and eventually sealed her ill-fated future in the house.

"I was really devastated to be nominated and I let that break me a little bit," said Chelsea Bird. "And then I thought that I could target Dane and deflect the target off of Adam, Sam and myself onto Dane and people would go with that, but I couldn't flip the house."

After Chelsea's eviction, Arisa let the house in on the biggest shocker of the season yet: the double eviction. With the turbo-speed mission in play, the remaining agents fought hard for Head of Household in a trivia competition called "Before or After" testing their memory of chronological events in the house. It was a nail-biting challenge with Mark Drelich, Eddie Lin, and Adam Pike making it to the final question. But it was Adam who bested the rest and nominated Kiera Wallace and Eddie Lin for eviction. With the Veto competition being the last hope for the nominees, it was Kiera who won the quick but challenging competition, choosing to use the Power of Veto on herself sending Kyra Shenker up as the replacement nominee. In a unanimous vote, the agents took their shot and evicted cryptocurrency developer Eddie from Montréal, Québec.

"I feel like my dream ended so roughly", said Eddie Lin. "I'm sorry Canada, I know that I've been very boring to watch. It was very hard to adapt to a new environment and I just felt like sometimes I could not relate to hockey and hookups."
