

ANIMAL LOVERS WANTED! THE CELEBRITY PAWCAST IS ALL ABOUT CELEBS AND THEIR PETS

Hosted by Canadian Country Music Awards (CCMA) Personality of the Year Chris Scheetz, the Pawsitively Amazing Podcast Launches November 19 on Curiouscast

New Episodes Released Every Two Weeks

Celebrity Pawcast launches on November 19.

For Immediate Release

TORONTO, November 19, 2019 – Looking for a way to brighten a ruff day? Curiouscast's pawfect new podcast about our favourite furry friends, Celebrity Pawcast, launches on November 19. Hosted by award-winning radio personality Chris Scheetz, the podcast features famous animal owners, athletes, actors, musicians, and other celebrities with deep dive interviews about their four-legged friends.

The first episode features an interview with CCMA and Juno award-winning country star Brett Kissel. The podcast will also feature dog training and behavioral experts on every episode to answer your doggy-do and doggy-don't questions. Other celebrities featured in upcoming episodes include ET Canada's Cheryl Hickey, Global News' Chief Meteorologist Anthony Farnell and famous sidekick Storm the Weather Dog, Country Star Paul Brandt and Edmonton Eskimo Sean Whyte.

"Anyone who owns a pet has a story about what they mean to their lives," said Chris 'Dunner' Duncombe, Director of Podcasting and Streaming, Corus Entertainment. "Chris' new podcast is full of these great stories and gives us a candid look into the lives of celebrities and their pets. We know animal lovers are going to love this new podcast."

"I've been talking to celebrities furever, and I've never heard as much passion as when they talk about their animals," said Chris Scheetz, Host. "Celebrity Pawcast gives me a platform to ask about the one thing that they don't often get questions on: their fur babies."

Celebrity Pawcast is available now, with new episodes of the podcast released every two weeks.
