

GLOBAL NEWS HONOURS CANADIAN VETERANS WITH REMEMBRANCE DAY COVERAGE

National News Specials, No Stone Left Alone and Canada Remembers, Air Monday, November 11 with a special edition of *Global National

For Immediate Release

TORONTO, November 1, 2019 – We remember. Global News is back with its annual Remembrance Day coverage that honours the brave and selfless Canadians who have served in the armed forces. With nation-wide coverage of impactful student-led movement, No Stone Left Alone, to a commemorative edition of Global National featuring segments broadcast live from the National War Memorial in Ottawa, Global News is proud to present comprehensive coverage that honours our nation's history and encourages Canadians to remember.

The No Stone Left Alone Memorial Foundation operates Remembrance Day events for students with the mission to place poppies on the headstones of veterans, while educating the public on the stories of sacrifice by members of the armed forces. Since its launch in 2011, more than 100 ceremonies now occur in 68 communities across Canada and are attended by elected officials, military, indigenous leaders, and local dignitaries.

On Monday, November 4, Global News will air coverage of No Stone Left Alone ceremonies in its local evening newscasts, with a live stream of the national event available online at Globalnews.ca and each station's Facebook page. Live streams will be available at:

- Global BC and Global Okanagan at 9:30 a.m. PT
- Global Edmonton, Global Calgary, and Global Lethbridge at 10:30 a.m. MT
- Global Regina, Global Saskatoon, and Global Winnipeg at 11:30 a.m. CT
