For Immediate Release

TORONTO, June 8, 2022 – Get ready for the ultimate culinary experience as Corus Entertainment Inc. announced today the launch of its new food festival, GRAZE TORONTO. Coming to Corus Quay and Sugar Beach, Toronto in Fall 2023, GRAZE is a deliciously tempting food festival that will deliver an immersive culinary experience, transforming the way consumers think about food events.

GRAZE represents the definitive showcase for food and drink, bringing together people that share their love of exceptional cuisine, and immersing them in an indulgent experience where they can eat, cook, listen, learn and explore. Featuring local chefs and big names in the food scene, plus activations across music, art, kids, and more, GRAZE offers something for every member of the family.

“GRAZE is the food festival reimagined – offering not only gourmet flavours but innovative experiences, served up in a refined and inspiring setting,” said Dervla Kelly, SVP Marketing & so.da, Corus Entertainment. “What makes this festival unique is it’s all supported by the power of Corus and its marketing megaphone, allowing sponsors to participate in a premium event that connects directly with consumers, and gets attendees up close and personal with our brands.”

Developed by a talented team of event, festival and media experts GRAZE is produced by Corus in partnership with Eatertainment Events & Catering. Judy Merry, an industry veteran with over 20 years of experience planning and executing some of North America’s most successful festivals and tradeshow, serves as Executive Producer of GRAZE.

Sponsorship opportunities are available across six different levels of participation. To learn more, please contact your Corus Sales Representative or contact us at info@grazetoronto.ca.

Additional details for the festival including admission and activations to be announced at a later date.
