For Immediate Release

TORONTO, December 7, 2023 – Today, Global announced premiere dates for its all-new Winter/Spring 2024 primetime offering. The New Year starts off with fresh programming, welcoming the much-anticipated return of Global's star-studded and dynamic lineup of hit series including blockbuster franchises NCIS and FBI, along with action-packed dramas CSI: Vegas, 9-1-1, So Help Me Todd and Fire Country, acclaimed comedies Abbott Elementary and Ghosts, and top-performing reality series Survivor and Big Brother Canada. Plus, joining Global's proven hits this winter is newcomer Elsbeth, starring Carrie Preston and based on and named after the fan-favourite character featured in The Good Wife and The Good Fight.

"Global is ringing in the New Year with a strong schedule filled to the brim with TV's most exciting premium series, delivering 15 hours of primetime simulcast hours this spring," said Troy Reeb, Executive Vice President, Networks and Content, Corus Entertainment. "With a fresh slate of content every day of the week, Global's 2024 lineup is once again chock-full of unparalleled action, laughs, tears, and edge-of-your-seat excitement."

NEW PRIMETIME SERIES

First announced in June 2023 and set to premiere Thursday, February 29 at 10 p.m. ET/PT on Global, Elsbeth stars Carrie Preston as Elsbeth Tascioni, an astute but unconventional attorney who utilizes her singular point of view to make unique observations and corner brilliant criminals alongside the NYPD. Elsbeth is based on the character featured in The Good Wife and The Good Fight with Robert King, Michelle King, Liz Glotzer and Jonathan Tolins serving as executive producers with Tolins as showrunner. Robert King directed the pilot from a script he wrote with Michelle King. The series is produced by CBS Studios and distributed by Paramount Global Content Distribution.
