Cue the drama and betrayal, as the spotlight has stopped shining on Hubbards, Nova Scotia's Donna Marshall in the first blindsided eviction of Big Brother Canada Season 12. This week's power went from one All-Star to the other as Victoria "Spicy Vee" Woghiren became the second Head of Household of the season, targeting Saint John, New Brunswick's Vivek Sabbarwal for eviction and using North Bay Ontario's Elijah Kazlauskas as a pawn. When Toronto's Dinis Freitas won his second consecutive Power of Veto competition, he chose to use it this time, taking Vivek off the block. Things then turned spicy, as Victoria curated the first blindsided of the season, naming fellow "Big Sister" alliance member, Donna, as the replacement. Donna tried hard to get the houseguests to see her as an asset for their game, but her fate was ultimately sealed and she was evicted in the first backdoor in the BBCAN Studios by a vote of 7 to 3.
