Deception and betrayal continue to run rampant inside the Big Brother Canada Studios, as Toronto's Dinis Freitas becomes the second consecutive houseguest evicted by a blindside for Season 12. This week Saint John, New Brunswick's Vivek Sabbarwal went from being the house target to holding all the power as the Head of Household. After nominating Halifax's Bayleigh Pelham as his target and North Bay's Elijah Kazlauskas as the pawn, the HOH was thrown for a loop when Stouffville, Ontario's Kayla Clennon won her first POV competition and used it to take fellow "Big Sisters" alliance member Bayleigh off the block. Forced to name a replacement, Vivek was persuaded to name his supposed ally, Dinis, as the new nominee in a gut-wrenching move. As a true superfan at his core, Dinis campaigned hard, but was eventually sent home by a vote of 9 to 0. Following the eviction, the houseguests were tested on their BBCAN history and Elijah came out victorious, becoming the new HOH.

"That was a rollercoaster and I'm hoping that you all saw that I did not give up, I could not give up, I did whatever I could to stay. Because I absolutely love this game." - Dinis Freitas
