Another week of mayhem inside the Big Brother Canada house continued to cause more drama, resulting in the first "Hot Chocolate" alliance member, Stouffville, Ontario's Kayla Clennon, to be sent packing from the BBCAN Studios. Tensions and tempers were high leading into the HOH competition, where Selkirk, Manitoba's Avery Martin took home her second win of the season. Then, Avery nominated Happy Valley-Goose Bay, Newfoundland and Labrador's Todd Clements and Ottawa's Tola Eam for eviction due to their casting decisions during the Movie Night Massacre, stating that both men were her targets. However, when Halifax's Bayleigh Pelham won the POV and took her fellow East Coaster, Todd, off the block, the two All-Stars wasted no time conspiring and convincing HOH Avery and the rest of the houseguests to blindside the first "Hot Chocolate" alliance member, Kayla, who Avery named as the replacement. The houseguests went haywire as different conversations and lies spread like wildfire, but in the end, the Hot Chocolate alliance boiled over, and it's first member, Kayla, was evicted by a unanimous vote of 5 to 0 to become the second jury member of Season 12.

"I think I let my paranoia get the best of me, I really don't know. I was for Hot Chocolate, I would die for Hot Chocolate, and I did that."
- Kayla Clennon
