It was double the trouble inside the BBCAN Studios as Selkirk, Manitoba's Avery Martin, and Ottawa's Tola Eam, were sent packing in tonight's double eviction.

Earlier this week, two-time block star, Tola, went from being BBCAN's most wanted to the new HOH. Revenge took the spotlight when Tola named Avery as his target for previously trying to evict him, alongside Halifax's Bayleigh Pelham, as his two nominees. Although many seeds were planted for a potential backdoor plan, POV winner, Happy Valley-Goose Bay, Newfoundland and Labrador's Todd Clements, didn't use the Veto, and kept the nominees the same. Avery fought tooth and nail, but ultimately her fate was sealed and she was evicted by a vote of 3 to 1, becoming Season 12's third jury member.

"People were scared of me, my own alliance was scared of me, and if that doesn't tell you I was a good player, I don't know what does." - Avery Martin

Immediately following Avery's exit, Host Arisa Cox informed the remaining houseguests of the double eviction. Competing in an HOH comp, Hamilton's Victoria Woghiren had the closest answer, becoming the new HOH and nominated Toronto's Lexus Jackson and three-time block star, Tola, for eviction. While both competed hard with their games on the line, Todd won his second consecutive Power of Veto competition and chose not to use it. The votes weren't in Tola's favour and he was sent to jury in a unanimous vote of 3 to 0.

"I went from the block to the top to take out my number one target, and the next thing you know, Victoria sends me home." - Tola Eam
