Today, Global announced An Evening with Elton John and Brandi Carlile will join the network's lineup, airing Sunday, April 6 at 8 p.m. ET/PT on Global and STACKTV.

The new, one-hour, primetime concert special features live performances by legendary artists Elton John and Brandi Carlile, and captivating stories about the pair's long-lasting friendship and an intimate look at their new joint album.

Filming on March 26 at London's iconic Palladium Theatre and accompanied by a live band, Elton and Brandi will perform songs from their new album, Who Believes in Angels? The musicians will also perform a selection of their individual greatest hits, including timeless classics from Elton's discography and Brandi will debut an unreleased track.

Between these electrifying solo and duo performances, Elton and Brandi will also invite the audience into an intimate sit-down conversation on stage that will pull back the curtain on their 20-year friendship, the profound journey behind their latest collaboration and share intimate footage from their process. Additionally, throughout the evening, those closest to Elton and Brandi will pay emotional tributes to the artists' illustrious careers.

An Evening with Elton John and Brandi Carlile is produced by Fulwell Entertainment with Ben Winston, Gabe Turner and Sally Wood serving as executive producers.
